Improvements.—Section 57 of the Land Act 1962, as amended provides that an Agricultural Lease shall contain conditions prescribing the minimum improvements to be carried out by the lessee. Conditions applicable to the leases described above are as follows:

(a) The land shall be used bona fide for Agricultural purposes,

(b) Of the land suitable for cultivation, the following proportions shall be planted in a good and husbandlike manner with a crop, or crops or pasture species of economic value, which shall be harvested regularly in accordance with sound commercial practice—

One-fifth in the first period of 5 years of the term;

Two-fifths in the first period of 10 years of the term;

Three-fifths in the first period of, 15 years of the term;

Four-fifths in the first period of 20 years of the term;

and during the remainder of the term of the lease four-fifths of the land so suitable shall be kept so planted.

Provided always that if at the end of the first two years of the term of the lease the lessee has not cleared and prepared for planting or planted a minimum of one-tenth of the area so suited, the Minister for Lands, after considering any reply from the lessee to a demand to show cause why he, (the Minister) should not so do may, by notice in the Gazette and in accordance with the Land Act 1962, as amended to date, forfeit the Lease.

Residence Condition.—The lessee or his agent shall take up residency or occupancy of his block within 6 months of the date of grant.

Land Board may, after considering development proposals submitted by the applicant vary the condition of the lease from that set out herein.

Applicants are warned that all applications must be accompanied by the prescribed fee of K2.00 for each block sought and must be lodged or posted so as to reach the Director of Lands, Surveys and Mines, P.O. Wards Strip, Waigani, Papua

Applications will be accepted from Papua New Guinea citizens only. Intending applicants are advised to inspect the blocks before lodging applications.

Improvements:—Section 57 of the Land Act 1962–74 provides that an Agricultural Lease shall contain conditions prescribing the minimum improvements to be carried out by the lessee. Conditions applicable to the lease described above are as follows:

(a) Fixed improvements such as Residence, Poultry and Pig pens to the value of One Thousand Kina shall be erected within 2 years from the date of grant.

(b) Of the land suitable for cultivation at least one-third shall be planted with crops of economic value within 2 years from the date of grant; and during the remainder of the term one-third of the land so suitable shall be kept so planted.

(c) Provided always that if at the end of the first 2 years of the lease the lessee has not made sufficient progress in meeting the improvement covenant the Minister for Lands may, if he thinks fit by notice in the National Gazette and in accordance with the provision of the Land Act 1962–74, forfeit the lease.

Special Conditions.—Portions 1339, 1342, 1352 and 1353 include high voltage powerline easements.

The blocks which include powerline easements are subject to the following conditions—

Staff and employees of Papua New Guinea Electricity Commission shall at all times have access to the lines and support towers.

No house or dwelling may be erected within the easement.

Buildings other than dwellings may be erected to a height not exceeding 7 feet above the ground level.

The lessee shall not permit vegetation within the easement to grow to a height exceeding 10 feet above ground level.

Any fence which the lessee erects or causes or suffers to be erected across the easement shall be equipped with a gate opening to a width of not less than 10 feet and so located as to allow free access along the easement.

Residence Condition.—The lessee or his agent shall take up residency or occupancy of the block within 2 months from the date of grant.

Applicants are warned that applications must be lodged at or posted so as to reach the Lands Department, Waigani, Papua New Guinea before 3 p.m., Wednesday, 31st December, 1975. All applications must be accompanied by the prescribed Applications will be accepted from Papua New Guinea citizens only. Applicants are advised that the following fees are payable on the proposed lease.

Preparation of Lease Fee
K 20.00

Survey Fees K300.00

Land Board will require evidence of financial resources and applicant's ability to pay the fees. Under special circumstances the payment may be allowed in ten equal instalments, including interest of 5 per centum, over the first 10 years of the term. In case where the applicant intends to negotiate a developmental loan it would be advisable to request the lending authority to include the lease fee as a component of the loan.

Intending applicants are recommended to inspect the blocks before lodging applications.

Improvements.—Section 57 of the Land Act 1962, as amended provides that an Agricultural Lease shall contain conditions prescribing the minimum improvements to be carried out by the lessee. Conditions applicable to the leases described above are as follows:

(a) Of the land suitable for cultivation, the following proportions shall be planted in a good and husbandlike manner with a crop, crops or pasture species of economic value, which shall be harvested regularly in accordance with sound commercial practice—

Two-fifths in the first period of 5 years of the term;

Three-fifths in the first period of 10 years of the term;

Four-fifths in the first period of 15 years of the term;

and during the remainder of the term four-fifths of the land so suitable shall be kept so planted.

That portion of the lease which is to be utilized for grazing shall be stocked with a minimum of 1 head of great cattle per 1.5 hectares within 3 years from the date of grant, and shall be kept stocked to that minimum for the remainder of the term.

That portion of the lease which is to be utilized for grazing shall within 3 years from the date of grant be fenced externally except in such parts of the boundaries as the presence of natural features make this unnecessary, with a barbed wire fence of not less than 4 strands having posts not more than 4.5 metres (15 feet) apart and strainer posts at least every 100 metres (15 chains) the said fence to be kept well strained and in stock-proof condition.

That portion of the lease which is to be utilized for grazing shall be subdivided by fences into at least 2 paddocks within 3 years from the date of grant. Any one paddock shall not enclose more than 60 % of the total area.

Provided always that if at the end of the first 2 years .of the term of the lease the lessee has not cleared and prepared for

from the lessee to a demand to show cause why he (the Minister) should not so do may, by notice in the Gazette and in accordance with the Land Act 1962, as amended to date, forfeit the Lease.

(b) The lessee or his agent shall take up residency or occupancy of his block within 6 months from the date of grant.

Applicants are warned that all applications must be accompanied by the prescribed fee of K2.00 for each block sought and must be lodged or posted so as to reach the Director of Lands, Surveys and Mines, P.O. Wards Strip, Waigani, Papua

New Guinea before 3 p.m. Wednesday, 31st December, 1975. Applicants not conforming to the above will be rejected as informal.
